Emergence Health Network Hosts Thanksgiving Meal for Veterans

(El Paso, TX November 2018) Emergence Health Network (EHN), together with its Military Veterans Peer Network (MVPN) group and the Steven Cohen Military Family Clinic at Endeavors is hosting a pre-Thanksgiving Lunch at the EHN Veteran's One Stop Center. "We would like to invite all veterans in our community to stop by and have a Pre-Thanksgiving meal on us. We will have turkey and all the trimmings," said Kellie Franco, EHN Veteran's Services Program Manager. "It's our way of thanking the men and women in El Paso for their service to our country."

The EHN Veterans' One Stop Center opened its doors in Northeast El Paso in August 2016, thanks to grants from the Texas Veterans Commission (TVC) and The Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) with the goal of expanding mental health and support services to veterans, their dependents and surviving spouses.
