Emergence Health Network helps Veterans Dress for Success

(El Paso, Texas April, 2018) Emergence Health Network together with the Office of Senator Jose Rodriguez and Family Endeavors is proud to be a part of the Vets Dress for Success Drive hosted at our EHN Veterans One Stop Center in Northeast El Paso. “EHN is honored to be a part of this important community effort to help our veterans,” said Kristi Daugherty, CEO Emergence Health Network. “We know sometimes transitioning back into civilian life can be challenging on several levels, that’s why our Veterans One Stop Center is here to help.”

Thanks to the generosity of El Pasoans, new or gently used professional clothes were collected for both men and women veterans in our community to assist them in obtaining civilian employment.

All local veterans who could benefit from the donations can stop by the EHN Veterans One Stop Center Tuesday, April 3, 2018 through Friday April, 6, 2018 to gather apparel needed for job interviews or employment.
